ABOUT THE NATIONAL COUNCIL AUDITIONS

The Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions program began in Minneapolis/St. Paul in 1954. Over the years, these auditions have expanded to 12 regions of the United States, Canada and Mexico. There are 42 districts within these regions, each providing an opportunity for talented singers to enter the auditions program at the local level. More than 1,500 singers audition every year. The auditions are administered by National Council members and volunteers in each region.

MISSION STATEMENT

The purpose of the National Council Auditions program is to discover exceptional young talent and provide a venue for young opera singers across North America at all levels of development to be heard by representatives of the Metropolitan Opera and to assist those with the greatest potential for operatic careers.

This year’s Grand Finals Concert in New York will take place March 31, 2019 at 3:00 p.m. Tickets are available through the Met at (212) 362-6000 or www.metopera.org.

SOPHIE JOYCE is the Director of the Lindemann Young Artist Development Program, the Metropolitan Opera’s elite program for leading young singers on the cusp of international opera careers. Ms. Joyce is also a member of the pre-selection panel worldwide for the prestigious Neue Stimmen International Singing Competition. Known for her ability to scout and nurture extraordinary talent, Ms. Joyce worked for 10 years, until 2016, at English National Opera (ENO), where she was Head of Casting and Director of the ENO Harewood Artist Program. She had earlier been Casting Administrator and Manager of the company’s Young Singers Program, as well as Assistant Company Manager. From 2016-2018, Ms. Joyce worked as an opera consultant, advising young artists at the Royal College of Music and establishing a new Vocal Department for Keynote Artist Management. Ms. Joyce began her career at IMG Artists in 2004, working with some of the highest profile singers in the world today.

DEAN ANTHONY is Director of Opera, Brevard Music Center, and Artistic and Producing Director, Asheville Lyric Opera. As a character tenor, Mr. Anthony was often referred to as "The Tumbling Tenor". He created over 90 roles and appeared with over 50 opera companies throughout North America and Europe. Mr. Anthony's masterclass series based on movement, acting, and stagecraft for singers has led him to Nashville Opera, Florentine Opera, Florida Grand Opera, Minnesota Opera, Virginia Opera, Shreveport Opera, Festival Lyrique de Belle Île en Mer, SUNY Fredonia, University of Texas, Texas State University and University of Wisconsin Green Bay. Mr. Anthony can be heard on Naxos as Kaspar on the Grammy-nominated recording of Amahl and the Night Visitors, and seen as Danny Buchanan in Francesca Zambello’s Street Scene on Image Entertainment.

JOHN KEENE is Head of Music Staff and Chorus Master at Seattle Opera, where he has also conducted the company premiere of As One and was Assistant Conductor for Wagner’s Der Ring des Nibelungen. Previously he was Head of Music Staff and Chorus Master at Florida Grand Opera, where he worked with Plácido Domingo, Dmitri Hvorostovsky, Sherrill Milnes, Renata Scotto, and Bryn Terfel. An acclaimed vocal coach, recital accompanist, and conductor, Maestro Keene has been associated with San Francisco Opera, Opera Theatre of Saint Louis and New Orleans Opera, among many others. A student of the pioneer teacher of accompanying, Gwendolyn Koldofsky, he partnered baritone Thomas Hampson in her masterclasses.

ACCOMPANIST DAMIEN FRANCOEUR-KRZYZEK holds faculty positions at the New England Conservatory and the Boston Conservatory. As a member of NEC’s collaborative piano department, he educates young pianists in the art of playing operatic literature and coaching singers. Since 2008 he has served on the music staff at Opera Theatre of Saint Louis, where he will be playing harpsichord alongside members of the Saint Louis Symphony for OTSL’s upcoming production of The Coronation of Poppea. Before devoting himself to collaborative piano, Mr. Francoeur-Krzyzek studied as a baritone in his native Denver, where he was a regional MONC finalist in 2004. Please join him in Jordan Hall this Tuesday, January 29th, at 7:30 for an evening of chamber music with pianist Tanya Blaich, violinist Christine Lim and the Verona Quartet.

A Legacy Fund has been established to designate a one time or annual encouragement award for someone special and to help fund student tickets. This year we wish to thank Frans and Mita van Berkhout for their generous support of this fund.

Winners of the district auditions advance to their region’s finals, where they compete to advance to the National Semifinals on the stage of the Metropolitan Opera. Approximately ten Semi-Finalists are selected as National Finalists and compete the following Sunday in the Grand Finals Concert, accompanied by the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra. The jury awards approximately five Grand Winners $15,000 each. The concert is broadcast on the Metropolitan Opera Radio Network. The remaining National Finalists receive $5,000 each, and singers who were National Semi-Finalists but did not advance to the National Finals will be given $1,500 to further their studies.

Many of the world’s foremost singers, among them Renée Fleming, Susan Graham, Thomas Hampson, Ben Heppner, Jessye Norman, Samuel Ramey, and Deborah Voigt have received awards from the National Council. Annually, approximately 100 former auditioners appear in Metropolitan Opera productions.
